Today we are going to practice 2 very interesting sounds.

They live only in English.

The first sound is th- [θ].

The second sound is th- [ð].

They are two brothers, but one is louder than the other.

th-[ð] th-[θ]

Listen to these sounds. Which is louder?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. Look at these pictures. Let's listen to the pronunciation. Do you see any difference between these words? Do they sound similar?

thin

mother

father

bathroom

thumb

three they theatre

weather

LIVEWORKSHEETS

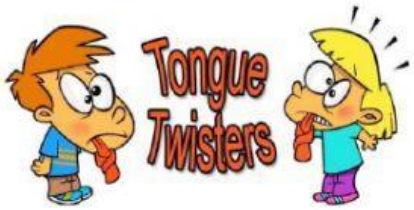

2. Fill in this table.

 thumb	 mother
1.	2.
3.	4.
5.	6.
7.	8.
9.	10.
11.	12.

3. Now let's listen to some sentences with these words. Let's repeat these examples.

1. This boy is thin.
2. My mother is a doctor.
3. My father is tall.
4. The bathroom is on the second floor.
5. The thunder is loud.
6. Put your thumbs up!
7. That cat is very beautiful.
8. My brother is three years old.
9. They are my friends.
10. I like going to the theatre.
11. Today the weather is good.

4. Let's practice the following twister all together. The one, who says it more quickly than other pupils, will win.

"The first thing that they think of is this."

LIVEWORKSHEETS