Dear Paula,

Hello Paula, how are you? It's been a month since l last heard from you. Well l just wanted to tell you that I was in a hospital last week. According to the doctor l was infected by dengue fever.

At first, I felt my body became weak then fainted when was studying in the classroom. Then, I was taken to the hospital because of the high fever.

At the hospital, I was brought into the emergency unit. The doctor immediately gave some treatments. Finally, l had to stay there for one week. Every day the doctor kept me on a drip. At the seventh day, my condition was getting better. After the final check, the doctor gave me permission to go home. Now, I'm okay and because of my illness, I am now more careful about keeping in my house clean especially my room, I don't want to get the same illness again.

OK, think that's all from me, writes to me soon ok?

Regards

Nadira

Dear Mrs. Hudson,

Thank you for setting aside your time to read this letter. The reason why I'm writing this letter is that I want you to know that I can't attend the class next week.

Cakap has invited me to take part in their Speech Competition which is held on Monday, the same day as your class. I hope you give me permission to skip the class and support me to win this competition.

I think that's all from me. Thank you for your understanding.

Best regards,

Pharell
