

Name: _____

Class: _____

Task 1: Listen and write the correct numbers.

Task 2: Complete the sentences. Write how many, there are or there were.

Use a capital letter when necessary.

1. _____ over 100,000 cheetahs 100 years ago.
2. Today, _____ only 12,000.
3. _____ Asian elephants were there 100 years ago?
4. _____ 90,000 Asian elephants 100 years ago.
5. Now, _____ only 45,000 Asian elephants because people are killing them.
6. _____ animals are endangered?

Task 3: Read. Write questions and answers.

Ryan has got a large family. He's got 36 cousins. Twenty are boys and 16 are girls. Five years ago he had 30 cousins. Ten of the cousins were girls.

(Ryan doesn't count himself when he writes this list of questions and answers.)

1. How many cousins were there five years ago?

2. How many girl cousins were there five years ago?

3.

There were 20 boy cousins five years ago.

4.

Today, there are 36 cousins.

Task 4: Why are many animals endangered? Give two reasons.

1.

2.

Task 5: Write a comparison of two strange animals. Write three or four sentences. Include at least one similarity and one difference.
