

Present Tense – do, does, don't & doesn't

Your friend wants to know about what your mother ( a chef) _____ every day at her restaurant.

From: acmizal_peaceyoo@gmail.com

To: norafizie78@gmail.com

Subject: My mother daily activities

Dear Nora,

How are you dear? I hope everything is right as rain.

Well, everyone _____ what my mother does. She is a chef.

Everyday she _____ up as early 5am to prepare foods for her customers.

She _____ her restaurant at 7.00am. There, her workers _____ her to cook and serve foods. She _____ them to cook all the foods. The workers _____ fried rice, fried noodles and many more but they _____ make kuih. When they _____ fried rice, they usually _____ some fresh ingredients like prawns, vegetables and chilly. Her customers always _____ her for her delicious fried rice. She also _____ traditional kuih like Pulut Panggang and curry puffs. She _____ how to make kuih from my late grandmother. My mother _____ cook western food. She usually _____ her restaurant at 12.00pm. After that, she _____ home. It _____ only ten minutes to reach home.

That's all about my mother.

Thank you. See you again. Bye.

ACMIZAL

SIMPLE PRESENT TENSE DO / DOES / DON'T/DOESN'T Copyright®mlutfi.tba4023@gmail.com

