Subject: Lockdown in Ireland

Hi there !
 I hope everybody is fine in Malrieu !
 I'm okay but I hate this lockdown !
 Every day is always the same. Dad goes to the hospital where he works as a nurse. Mum is at home but she has to work too on her computer ! So, I have a lot of things to do, not just for me but for my little sister, Mary, too, because she's only 8 years old.
 In the morning I get up at 9 to have breakfast with Mary. Then, I have to play with her. At 10:30, I also have to help her with her homework. Grrr. She never listens to me ! Next it's my turn to do my homework... Mary plays alone.
 At 12:30 we eat our lunch with Mum. Mum cooks And I have to set the table but fortunately I don't have to wash the dishes... What about Mary ? She doesn't have to do anything, of course.
 In the afternoon we usually watch TV or we play board games. Then we have to do a bit of homework again ! We can't play outside. It's so boring !
 I like the evening because all our family is together again.
 Well, bye for now ! I hope to read you soon !
 Love, ☺ ☺ ☺

- Tara nous parle de ses obligations et de celles des membres de sa famille. Pour cela, elle utilise l'expression « To have to ». Ex : « I have to play with her »

(Je dois jouer avec elle)

Elle parle aussi d'une chose qu'elle n'est pas obligée de faire. Laquelle ? Recopie ce qu'elle dit :

- Maintenant remplis ce tableau pour dire ce qu'ils doivent faire

	Tara	Mary	Mum	Dad
Work from home
Help Mary with her homework
Do homework
Go to the hospital
Cook
Set the table
Play with Mary
Wash the dishes

- Exprime l'obligation avec un verbe en complétant ces phrases :

Dad
