

Halloween Worksheet

Superlatives Activity

STUDENT'S NAME : GRADE : DATE :

I. Watch the video about Halloween. Fill in the gaps with the missing words.

Elves - Trick-or-treat - Goblins - Bobbing - Bonfires - Costumes - Scarecrows

Halloween history and traditions

Halloween is celebrated on October 31st, many years, there were people who believed that witches, ghosts, goblins and _____ roamed the earth on that night. Some of these people made big _____ to scare them away. Later October 31st was called "All Hallows Even", which means "holy evening".

Today, many different things are done on Halloween, it is a time of fun: pumpkins are carved and candles are placed inside them, when the candles are lit, the pumpkins glow! Sometimes they are called Jack-O-Lanterns. Also, on Halloween costumes and masks are worn that look like witches, _____ and ghosts.

Halloween decoration are put on doors and in windows, _____ appear on porches with harvest decorations. Halloween is a time for ringing doorbells and saying "_____". Trick-or-treat bags are filled with Halloween goodies; people have fun seeing the different _____ and having spooky visitors come to their homes. Sometimes, Halloween parties are given, it is fun to guess who is who. Scary stories are told, tasty party snacks are enjoyed.

Halloween games are played too:
_____ for apples is an old English game, in some places there are Halloween costume parades and contests. Halloween is for all kind of make-believe and laughter and for saying BOO!

II. Choose the correct words to make true sentences.

Terrifying

Short
Happy

Handsome
Old

Big

1. The elf looks good; he is _____ of the group.
2. The witch is 120 years old; she is _____ of them all.
3. The scarecrow is _____ of all these monsters.
4. The goblin is small; he is _____ of the monsters.
5. The Jack-o-lantern is smiling; it is _____.
6. I think ghosts are _____ monsters!