

English Language Year 6 : Unit 13 :Overcoming the Odds

Handout 1 : Encik Hakimi reads a pamphlet on NGOs

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  Kiwaniis Down Syndrome Foundation (KDSF): Provides educational welfare to young children with Down Syndrome and counselling to families with children plays a role in creating public awareness of Down Syndrome.  The Malaysian Association for the Blind (MAB): Provides rehabilitation services and courses, educational programmes, and vocational training for visually impaired people. |  National Autistic Society of Malaysia (NASOM): Provides education, help, care and protection for people with autism. Autism is a brain disorder that affects a person in different ways such as learning, speaking, and social behavior. |  Persatuan Dyslexia Malaysia (PDM) : Provides specific educational support for dyslexic children. Dyslexia is a reading disorder in children and adults. PDM helps dyslexic children to obtain specialized diagnosis and treatment so that their disabilities may be remedied as early as possible. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

skills : 2.2.2 (b)

Exercise A : Read the text. Then, answer the following questions.
Tick ( ✓ ) the correct answer.

1. The Kiwanis Down Syndrome Foundation helps people with

|               |  |
|---------------|--|
| autism        |  |
| dyslexia      |  |
| Down syndrome |  |

2. Autism is a _____ disorder.

|        |  |
|--------|--|
| eye    |  |
| brain  |  |
| muscle |  |

Exercise B : Write your answer in the space provided.

3. Give one example how Persatuan Dyslexia Malaysia helps dyslexic children.

---

---

4. List two services provided by the Kiwanis Down Syndrome Foundation.

(a) _____

(b) _____

5. What does the Malaysian Association for the Blind do to help the visually impaired people?

---

---

Skills : 2.2.2(b)