

Writing- An account of a true event

Complete the recount with the correct strong adjectives and copy the account in your writing book.

It was the third day of a _____ (very nice) holiday I was having on the island of Penang in Malaysia. The hotel was _____ (very big), which meant the swimming pool was crowded every day. I had learnt to get up early and save a sun lounger by leaving my towel on it. After that, I was usually _____ (very hungry), so I enjoyed a _____ (very tasty) breakfast in the hotel restaurant. Later, I'd go down to the pool and enjoy a swim.

But on that day, as I approached the sun lounger, I was _____ (very surprised) to see my towel on the floor and a teenage boy on the lounger. I was _____ (very angry), so I picked up my _____ (very dirty) towel, waved it at him and said, 'What's this?' He replied that it was a towel. I explained that it was my towel and he just smiled and said, 'Maybe the wind blew it off.' This boy was _____ (annoying me)! I shouted so that everyone could hear. 'It's very rude to steal someone's sun lounger, you know!' Then I turned round to leave. But as I turned, I slipped and fell into the pool!

Everyone thought it was _____ (very funny), especially the boy on the sun lounger. I just _____ (felt embarrassing)!
