Instructions: Answer the questions below. Write C next to the correct answer(s) and X next to the incorrect answer(s). More than one can be correct.

1. What is a Biosphere Reserve?
    a. ___ A place where you can dispose of waste properly
    b. ___ A protected area declared by international organizations
    c. ___ A good example of achieving a balance between human activity and nature
2. What is restricted in a Biosphere Reserve?
    a. ___ Hunting
    b. ___ Visitors
    c. ___ Camping
3. How can we save water?
    a. ___ Keep the tap on while brushing our teeth
    b. ___ Taking baths instead of showering
    c. ___ Run our dishwashers and washing machines with full loads
4. How can we respect nature?
    a. ___ Take all of our rubbish with us at the end of our visit
    b. ___ Keep our noise level down
    c. ___ Pick up branches to build a fire
    d. ___ Let our dogs off of their lead
5. Yellowstone National Park is:
    a. ___ The first National Park in the world
    b. ___ A Biosphere Reserve
    c. ___ In Germany

Instructions: Answer true or false for each question. If the sentence is false, correct the sentence on the line below. If the answer is true, write true on the line below.

1. _____ Governments are not responsible for fighting wildfires.

    _____

2. _____ Some government protection measures include monitoring the conditions of natural areas and establishing hunting and fishing restrictions.

    _____

3. _____ To save energy, we should use high energy light bulbs.

    _____

4. _____ Laws protect the flora, fauna and physical environments of Biosphere Reserves, Nature Reserves, and National Parks.

    _____