UNIT #4 – GRAMMAR #2

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Definitions with which

Gravity is a force.	It pulls you toward Earth.
Gravity is a force which pulls you toward Earth.
A carnivore is an animal.	It eats meat.
A carnivore is an animal which eats meat.
Skates are special shoes.	You wear them on the ice.
Skates are special shoes which you wear on the ice.
Honey is a sweet food.	Bees make it.
Honey is a sweet food which bees make.

You can use which to combine sentences.

1 Read. Write which when necessary. If it's not necessary, write X.

1. Gravity [ ] pulls you toward the center of the earth.
2. Gravity is the force [ ] holds everything in place.
3. Tennis is a sport [ ] needs two or four people.
4. I play tennis [ ] with three of my school friends.
5. Pedaling [ ] makes a bicycle move.

2 Write. Use which and the words provided.

1. ice cream / sweet food / eat when it's hot outside.

   Ice cream is a sweet food which you eat when it's hot outside.

2. markers / tools / use to color pictures

3. basketball / sport / play with an orange ball

4. butterfly / insect / have beautiful wings

5. swing / object / move forward and backward

Activar Windows

3 Write. Complete the sentences using which.

1. A computer is an invention which we use all the time.
2. _____ is an object _____
3. _____ is a language _____
4. _____ is a sport _____
5. _____ is a game _____
6. _____ is a fruit _____

4 Look and write. Describe each object using which.

1.

A toothbrush is something which you use to clean your teeth.

2.

3.

Activar Windows
Ir a Configuración de Pi

5 Write. Choose an object in your classroom. Write three clues to describe it. Use which.

LIVEWORKSHEETS