Hi Rosebelle, I'm very happy that you can come to Alma and visit our school next week. Sek. Keb. Alma Jaya is a large school with 900 students. My house is in the centre of Alma, so I go to school on foot. Classes here always start at 7.30 a.m. and finish at 1.00 p.m. There is a break time of 30 minutes. You can have your food during this time. Some subjects like English and Maths are compulsory. We need to study them. Other subjects like languages are optional. I like languages so I study Tamil and Bahasa Arab. Here's some photos of my classmates and our school building. I can't wait to see you and introduce to my friends. Your beloved friend, Sanjay

Speaking ASSESSMENT 2

Servals are African wild cat. They live in different countries in Africa such as South Africa and Tanzania. Based on size, they can be one metre long. They have long legs and they are taller than normal cats.

Servals can run very fast. They can run at eighty kilometres an hour. They eat rats and other small animals such as frogs and snakes. They can jump up to three metres and kill birds too!

In some parts of Africa servals are killed. There are now smaller numbers of servals. The biggest problem is the human activity. They go around hunting for their skin and meat.
