

BETTER, WORSE OR INDIFFERENT?

Write your answer below if the sentence is better, worse or indifferent.

Ana unintentionally touched her teacher's elbow.

When I'm talking to a classmate, I stare down at my feet.

After they've finished cooking, John and his classmate tidy up the kitchen.

Yawning and expressing your boredom with them.

Maintaining eye contact.

When George became mad, he gave Joseph the middle finger.

Looking as if he's paying attention to what's being said.

Ruth approached a classmate and requested that they work together on the project.

Interrupting them in the middle of their conversation.

My mouth was full with food when I spoke.

Relationship Skills

I'm able to distinguish between poor, indifferent and good communication.

Communication
Volume 1

PAGE 28

Mind Trotters
WE ARE AN ESSENTIAL PIECE

LIVEWORKSHEETS