

Activity 2B:

What time would suit you?

Conversation 1

- D: Hello
- M: Thank you for your letter. I'd be very interested to meet you and discuss the new project.
- D: That's good news, Oh please call me Duncan, by the way.
(1) _____?
- M: Let me see...I'm rather busy this week. Is next week possible for you? I'm free on Friday...or Tuesday... if you prefer?
- D: (2) _____. Shall we say lunch on Tuesday, then?
- M: Yes, that's fine. (3) _____?
- D: How about 1.30 at the Riverside Restaurant?
- M: Oh, that'll be very nice.
- D: Good, well, (4) _____.
- M: It'll be very nice to see you again, too. Goodbye.

Conversation 2

- D: Hello.
- M: Hello. (1) _____?
- D: Yes, speaking.
- M: Oh, hello Duncan. It's Monique Bresson here. I'm very sorry
(2) _____ - I have to go to Rome. Could we arrange another time?
- D: Oh, what a pity. But yes, of course (3) _____?
- M: Is Thursday 17th possible for you?
- D: No. I'm afraid, (4) _____.
(5) _____
- M: Yes, I can make it on the 18th.
- D: Excellent. So the same time and place? 1.30 at the Riverside?
- M: Yes, thank you, Duncan. And I do apologize.
- D: It's no problem at all. Have a good trip to Rome. See you on Friday.
