

Describing symptoms

Complete the following sentences by dragging the corresponding word to the missing space.

morbid / persistent / atypical / classic / full-blown / initial / minimal / progressive / cardinal / non-specific

The patient that came in today presented (1)_____ symptoms of COVID-19, such symptoms were high fever and a horrible cough.

He says that he has had (2)_____ pain in his body, almost any he says. But very (3)_____ headaches every time. One of the most common and (4)_____ symptoms we recognized was the lack of taste and smell. He says that his process has been (5)_____ and becoming worse everyday.

We asked him to mention any (6)_____ symptoms, not very common, but he doesn't seem to have any.

The (7)_____ symptom was his constant tiredness what lead us to a diagnosis, so we asked him to give us a (8)_____ of his symptoms to finally give him some medication and attention.

The agreement was for him to stay at his house, since we do not want to have any (9)_____ symptoms that can lead him to a worse case scenario. At the moment, there are not any (10)_____ symptoms we do not know, so we can only hope for the best.

