

Name: _____

Grade: _____

Subject: Clothing Construction & Craft

Date: _____

Commercial Patterns –Terminology Assignment

Read each sentence carefully then match the terms given with the correct meaning. Each term is only to be used once.

Layout Nap Ease View Grain Bias Warp Selvage
Grain line Weft Adjustment Fasteners Yardage Notions Alter

- 1) _____ is to alter pattern pieces so that it fit can be made in length or in width.
- 2) _____ is the amount of fabric needed for a project.
- 3) _____ are the smaller items you need to construct a garment, e.g. buttons, snaps, hooks and eyes & Velcro.
- 4) _____ is a diagram showing how to place the pattern pieces on your fabric.
- 5) _____ is the brushed surface- pile or one- way design.
- 6) _____ means to re-sew a garment, to change the size, length or design.
- 7) _____ is the room needed for comfort and movement, allowed for in the pattern.
- 8) _____ are any items used to help close a garment. They include zippers, buttons, snaps, hooks & eyes & Velcro.
- 9) _____ is the diagonal line formed when the crosswise gain is parallel to the selvage
- 10) _____ are yarns woven across the warp yarns, also known as filling yarns.
- 11) _____ is the direction in which the threads run in a fabric.
- 12) _____ are yarns (threads) the run the length of the fabric.
- 13) _____ is the straight line with arrows on each end, must be placed in the direction of the lengthwise grain, crosswise grain or bias.
- 14) _____ is the finished lengthwise edge of the fabric.
- 15) _____ is the drawing or photograph on a pattern that shows the style that the pattern will make.