

Grade 1 October Assessment Application

Pictograph

Use the pictograph to answer the following questions.

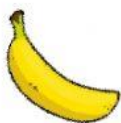

| Favorite Fruit |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| apple          |       |
| banana         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| orange         |                                                                                                                                                                             |
| pear           |                                                                                     |

How many children like orange?

Which fruit did most children like?

Which fruit did the children like the least?

Addition

- 3 flowers are yellow. 6 flowers are red.
How many flowers are there altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

---

- Belle sees 7 big snails. She sees 2 small snails.
How many snails are there in all?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

---

- 5 kites are orange. 4 kites are green.
How many kites are there in all?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

---

- 9 cats are sleeping. 2 cats are playing.
How many cats are there altogether?

$$\square + \square = \square$$