

Typical fauna in the Canary islands.

There are many popular species in the Canary Islands. We are going to learn some of them.

READ AND MATCH.

ENJOY it!

It is famous in Tenerife. It is blue. It has got a grey beak.
They have got larger wings.
They are black and are adapted to the Canary Islands conditions.
It is very common in El Hierro and it is about 60 cm long.
It is a beautiful bird. It is yellow and they sing a lot.
It is famous in la Gomera and it lives in laurel habitats.
It is very famous in Fuerteventura. They can be brown, white, black or a combination of these colours.
It is a bird very famous in the Canary Islands. They have a large tail.	