Famous School's Rules

Script

Principal Hope: I need to see you both in my office, please. Oh, Maeve.

Maeve: Yeah?

Principal Hope: Come with me. Come on in. Please, sit down. Iced VoVos, anyone? My husband made them. They're biscuits, they won't bite.

Cal: They've told me to come talk to you.

Principal Hope: Yes. Come on in. Shut the door, please. Listen I know breaking old habits is hard work, but I want you all following uniform rules by the end of the week. Cal, you can go and put these on.

Cal: I'm not wearing a skirt.

Principal Hope: Fine. You don't want to wear a skirt, that's up to you. I'm a feminist. I understand. But you will wear a uniform that fits you. No baggy trousers hanging around your ankles.

Cal: I actually...

Principal Hope: I think I'm being more than fair. Lily. Your hair and makeup is fun, but it's not appropriate for school. Maeve, this isn't a campus for Cookie Monsters.

Maeve: Are you referring to my hair?

Principal Hope: I am. Ola, only school badges allowed, I'm afraid.

Ola: It's my LGBTQIA+ badge. It's important to me.

Principal Hope: Of course it is, but I hope that your values aren't so fragile that a little badge is all that supports them. Remove it. Lily, am I right in thinking that you wrote the musical last term? What did your parents think of it?

Lily: They didn't really get it.

Principal Hope: Huh. Well, enjoy the Vovos. Back to class.
