

verb to be

Be: Affirmative and negative (he, she, it)

	Long form	Short form
Affirmative	He is good at math.	¹ He's good at math.
	She is a student.	She's a student.
	It is hard.	It's hard.
Negative	He is not right.	He isn't right.
	She is not a teacher.	She isn't a teacher.
	It is not easy.	² _____ easy.

Look at the pictures and complete the sentences.
Use is or isn't.

- 1 ★ Rewrite the affirmative sentences as negative sentences. Rewrite the negative sentences as affirmative sentences.

1 It's Tuesday.

It isn't Tuesday.

2 Math Isn't a hard subject.

3 He's a new student.

4 She isn't from New York.

5 My bag is old.

6 56 isn't the right answer.

7 It isn't eleven o'clock.

- 2 ★★ Write sentences with the correct form of be.

1 my school / big

My school is big.

2 Mrs. Evans / my math teacher

3 it / not / Friday today

4 Ella / good at history

5 it / not / my pencil

6 English / very easy

7 James / not / old