Read the song lyric to answer question 18-19.

[Rihanna:]
You have my heart
And we'll never be worlds apart
Maybe in magazines
But you'll still be my star
Baby, 'cause in the dark
You can't see shiny cars
And that's when you need me there
With you I'll always share
Because

When the sun shines, we'll shine together
Told you I'd be here forever
Said I'll always be your friend
Took an oath I'm a stick it out 'til the end
Now that it's raining more than ever
Know that we'll still have each other
You can stand under my umbrella
You can stand under my umbrella

18. What is the song about?
    A. Love.
    B. Affection.
    C. Friendship
    D. Admiration

One Tuesday morning my English teacher asked us to have outing class. My friends and I in grade 9.7 were assigned to observe our school surrounding and to write down what we saw on the way. First we were split out into two big groups. Out of the school gate, one group turned left and the other turned right. I belonged to the first group who turned left.

We enjoyed this activity, while strolling down the lane surrounding our school. Everybody in group stared right and left along the way to get ideas for their own writing task afterward. While we were busy getting our own ideas, suddenly a big dog got out of a big house near our school. It was barking loudly toward us. Everybody in my group were panic and ran to all their own directions. I ran as fast as I could since I was very afraid of dog. Some of my friends were screaming scaredly and ran back to school.

Once upon a time there lived a wise man by the name of Mamad. He never lied. All the people in the land, even the ones who lived twenty days away, knew about him.The king heard about Mamad and ordered his subjects to bring him to the palace. He looked at the wise man and asked:
" Mamad, is it true, that you have never lied?"
" It's true."
"And you will never lie in your life?"
" I'm sure in that."
"Okay, tell the truth, but be careful! The lie is cunning and it gets on your tongue easily."

Several days passed and the king called Mamad once again. There was a big crowd: the king was about to go hunting. The king held his horse by the mane, his left foot was already on the stirrup. He ordered Mamad:
"Go to my summer palace and tell the queen I will be with her for lunch. Tell her to prepare a big feast. You will have lunch with me then."

Mamad bowed down and went to the queen. Then the king laughed and said: "We won't go hunting and now Mamad will lie to the queen. Tomorrow we will laugh on his behalf."

Mamad went to the palace and said: "Maybe you should prepare a big feast for lunch tomorrow, and maybe you shouldn't. Maybe the king will come by noon, and maybe he won't." "Tell me, will he come, or won't he?" - asked the queen. "I don't know weather he put his right foot on the stirrup, or he put his left foot on the ground after I left."

Everybody waited for the king. He came the next day and said to the queen: "The wise Mamad, who never lies, lied to you yesterday." But the queen told him about the words of Mamad. And the king realized, that the wise man never lies, and says only that, which he saw with his own eyes.
