I. Look at the picture and read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. You can use 1, 2, 3 or 4 words.

Grandma had a letter to post. She asked David and Helen, 'Can you post this letter for me, please?'

'Of course, Grandma,' said Helen, 'but I don't know the way to the post office.'

'It's easy,' said Grandma. 'Go left, and at the end of the street, turn right. Go straight on, and at the corner, turn left. There are lots of shops in that street. The post office is on the right, next to the bank.'

They turned left, then they went straight on, and at the corner they turned left into Green Street. But there wasn't a post office there, or a bank, and there weren't any shops.

Helen said, 'I think we should go back and start again. Perhaps we should turn right at the end of Grandma's street, not left.'

'Oh, dear. I've forgotten where to go next,' said David.

'I think Grandma said we should turn left at the end of the street,' said Helen.

'We're here!' said Helen. But David looked unhappy.

'I've forgotten the letter!' he said.
