Conditionals without if

1Choose the correct answers.

1 The car can be easily fixed provided that / suppose you buy the necessary spare parts.

2 Provided / Supposing that Mike hadn't brought his map We would never have found the hotel!

3 As long as / Imagine that you add salt, it will taste fine.

4 On condition that / Imagine that the battery had run out. We wouldn't have been able to call mountain rescue.

5 You can lend him some money supposing / on condition that he pays you back soon.

6 So long as / Imagine that the weather stays good, we should have a good day's sailing.

2 Match the beginnings (1-8) with the endings (a-h)

1 Imagine you lost your job. _f_

2 Provided that it doesn't rain,__

3 Suppose you decided to sell your bike.__

4 The money will be returned

5 Supposing we hadn't booked the tickets early__

6 As long as you've successfully completed the course, __

7 You'll be able to take part in the marathon__

8 We'll arrive on time__

a provided that you are physically fit.

b on condition that you have the receipt.

c We wouldn't have got good seats.

d as long as there are no problems with the trains.

e you'll get a certificate.

f Would you be able to find another one quickly?

g How much would you want for it?

h we'll play tennis.

3 Each sentence contains an extra unnecessary word. Find the words and cross them out.

1 So long as you've ~~been~~ passed your first degree, you can do a master's.

2 Supposing that the wheel hadn't been invented. The world would have be very different now.

3 Imagine that you hadn't passed the course. You wouldn't not be at university now.

4 We'll have the meeting here, so long as that you can reserve the room.

5 Suppose you had been born a hundred years ago. Your life would have to been much harder.

6 Imagine as he hadn't come. We would have been upset.

7 As long as you will leave home on time, you'll catch the train at 6 o'clock.

8 Provided that my teacher doesn't mind, I'll have hand in the project next week.