Visiting the Fair

A lot of people in our town visit the fair. I love going to the fair with my family because I think it's really fun. The fair has a lot of different rides. I think some of the rides are exciting. I like the Ghost Train the best.

There are also lots of games to play at the fair. My brother thinks the game where you throw a ball at bottles is the best. The fair comes to my town once a year. It stays for three days. It costs five dollars to go on two rides. It costs three dollars to play two games. I can't wait until it comes again.

B) Read the story and choose the correct answer.

Annie wants to play a game, but her young brother Freddie is bored. Annie wants to play 'snakes and ladders.' She has the counters to move up the ladders on the board or down the snakes if she lands on them. Freddie would rather be a snake – a boa constrictor! He imagines eating his red rubber ball and pushes it up his shirt! Annie watches him and then starts laughing. 'There must be a game we can play together. That would be much more fun,' she says.

So Annie thinks while Freddie is balancing, first on one leg and then the other. 'I know. Why don't we shout the name of an animal as we toss the ball? Then you can be lots of different animals while we play,' she says. Freddie thinks this is a great idea. 'You are very wise, Miss ...Owl!' he says, tossing the ball to Annie. 'whoo-who – thank you, Mr. Flamingo,' Annie says, throwing the ball to Freddie. He is balancing on one leg, just like a flamingo!
