Dream Catchers

Dream catchers are a great tradition of Native Americans. Dream catchers protect dreams. They are hung on beds. Dreams fly during the night. If the dream is beautiful, it passes through the hole but if the dream is negative or bad, it doesn't pass through. The web catches the dream. In the morning those bad dreams disappear.

For many generations, native American Indians have valued dream catchers. They are part of their lives and homes. Dream catchers also represent strength and unity. Now, we can also find dream catchers in markets, but they are made of modern materials. Tourists love to buy dream catchers.
