

How the world works – Language Arts - Week 1 – Assessment

Vocabulary

Instructions: Write the correct corresponding letter to the meaning of each vocabulary word.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| ___ windmill | a. A form of energy that gives us light at home. |
| ___ sailboat. | b. Release of harmful materials into the environment. |
| ___ wind turbine. | c. A liquid fossil fuel used to fuel our cars. |
| ___ wind farm. | d. A group of wind turbines that produce electricity. |
| ___ coal. | e. A solid fossil fuel that's used to power locomotive trains. |
| ___ oil. | f. A gas form of fossil fuel which we use to cook food at home. |
| ___ natural gas. | g. A place where electricity is generated. |
| ___ Pollution | h. An engine powered by the wind designed crush wheat and create flour. |
| ___ power plant | i. A boat with a white piece of material that catches the wind. |
| ___ electricity. | j. A turbine that converts wind energy into electricity. |

Instructions: Choose one word from the word box to complete each sentence below:

| | | |
|-----------|-------------|-------------|
| Windmill | Sailboat | Wind Tur |
| bine | Wind Farm | Coal |
| Pollution | Power Plant | Oil |
| | | Natural Gas |
| | | Electricity |

1. We use _____ daily to light our homes and charge our devices.
2. Many major cities in the world have a dark cloud of _____ hovering over the sky.
3. _____ is converted into gasoline and used to power our vehicles.
4. A _____ is a whole bunch of wind turbines used to create electricity.
5. Some peoples life hobby is sailing in a _____ in the seas.
6. An old fashioned _____ is used to crush wheat grain into flour.
7. Modern _____ are large structures that capture wind to create electricity.
8. Mining _____ can be a dangerous underground job. The train conductors use it to power their trains.
9. We use _____ to cook on our stoves at home.
10. A power plant is a modern power factory used to generate lots of electricity.

May or Might.

Hint: May is used to express possibility or permission.

Hint: Might is used to express a smaller possibility.

Instructions: Fill in the blank with may or might;

1. There's a strong chance my dad _____ play football with us after dinner.
2. Our math teacher _____ give us a big surprise test, but I doubt it.
3. It _____ snow later this afternoon according to the weather forecast.
4. The entire family _____ fly to France if we win the lottery.
5. _____ I please get a new video game?
6. _____ I be excused to the washroom.
7. Stacy studies all the time, so she _____ get a great grade.
8. Scott doesn't study at all, but he still _____ get a good grade.
9. We _____ win the big game today, but probably not.
10. My family _____ go to Georgia to visit my aunt if my dad can get extra time off.

Double Negatives

Instructions: Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1. I don't want no pizza for dinner. _____.
2. He doesn't have no sisters. _____.
3. We didn't do nothing for my birthday this year. _____.
4. She didn't see nobody at the park. _____.
5. There isn't no way to solve this problem. _____.
6. My mom wasn't nowhere near the school. _____.
7. The singers weren't no good this year. _____.
8. We didn't do no dances at the wedding. _____.