V. READING Read the passage below, then choose one best answer (A, B, C or D) to each question.

My name's Mandi. Three months ago, I went to a disco where I met a boy called Tom. I guessed he was older than me, but I liked him and thought it didn't matter. We danced a couple of times, then we chatted. He said he was 18, then asked how old I was. I told him I was 16. I thought that if I told him my real age, he wouldn't want to know me, as I'm only 13.

After the disco we arranged to meet the following weekend. The next Saturday we went for a burger and had a real laugh. Afterwards he walked me to my street and kissed me goodnight. Things went really well. We see each other a couple of times a week, but I've had to lie to my parents about where I'm going and who with. I've always got on with them, but I know that if they found out how old Tom was they'd stop me seeing him.

Now I really don't know what to do. I can't go on lying to my parents every time we go out, and Tom keeps asking why he can't come round to my house. I'm really worried and I need some advice.

21. Why has Mandi written this?

- A. to describe her boyfriend B. to prove how clever she is
C. to explain a problem D. to defend her actions

22. Who is she writing to?

- A. her boyfriend B. her parents
C. a teenage magazine D. a school friend

23. Why is Mandi worried?

- A. Tom has been behaving strangely. B. She's been telling lies.
C. She's not allowed to go to discos. D. Her parents are angry with her.

24. Why can't Tom come to Mandi's house?

- A. She doesn't want her parents to meet him.
- B. Her parents don't like him.
- C. He's nervous of meeting her parents.
- D. She doesn't want him to see where she lives.

25. Which of these answers did Mandi receive?

- A. Tell me what you really feel.
- B. You must start by being honest with everyone.
- C. Everyone's been unfair to you.
- D. Don't worry, I'm sure Tom will change his mind.

To many people, their friends are (31)important things in their life. Really good friends share the good times and the bad times, help you when you've got (32), never judge you and never turn their (33)on you. Your best friend (34)someone you've known all your life, someone you've grown up with and been through (35)ups and downs with.

There are all sorts of things (36)can bring about this special relationship. It may be the result of enjoying the same activities, having the outlook on life, or sharing similar experiences. Most of us (37) met someone that we've immediately felt relaxed with, as if we've known them for years. However, usually it really (38)you years to get to know someone (39)to consider your best friend.

To the majority of us, this is someone we trust completely and who understands us (40)than anyone else. It's the person you can turn to for your impartial advice and a shoulder to cry on when life gets you down.
