

END OF TERM TEST

STANDARD THREE DEPARTMENT

CREATIVE WRITING

Section A

Rearrange the groups of words to form sentences. Type the sentences in the spaces provided.

1. the are in They too classroom talking much.

2. to his went prayed He Sunday for church on and family.

3. don't scales are Amphibians that vertebrates have.

4. zoo took on Our to field visit teacher us a the trip.

5. at you Will my me be house meeting?

Section B

Match the sentences to their type.

1. I can't believe our team lost!	Interrogative
2. Stop writing after ten minutes.	Imperative
3. How old are you?	Declarative
4. My dad just bought a new car.	Exclamatory

Section C

Drag and drop the parts of the sentences under the correct category.

1. Mom and I went shopping in the mall.
2. All of us got our sums correct.
3. Everyone decided to leave at 10 o'clock.
4. Peter, John and Jim are going to the dinner tomorrow night.

SUBJECT	PREDICATE

Section D

Type the number in the boxes next to each sentence to indicate the order in which each should be written to produce a flowing paragraph.

Then he got a frying pan and cooked bacon, pancakes and eggs.

He went into the kitchen and filled the kettle with water.

Mark woke up very hungry.

He then sat down and enjoyed his breakfast.

After that he cut up fruits and placed the pieces in a bowl.

Section E

Choose whether each of the following is a sentence or a phrase.

1. One fine morning	sentence	phrase
2. When I saw the painting.	sentence	phrase
3. The carpenter is fixing the bench.	sentence	phrase
4. Praying the Rosary	sentence	phrase
5. Mom and dad went on a vacation.	sentence	phrase

Section F

Complete the story using the most appropriate word from the list provided to fill each space.

bonfire

entire

folktale

leaped

rumbled

scorched

denied

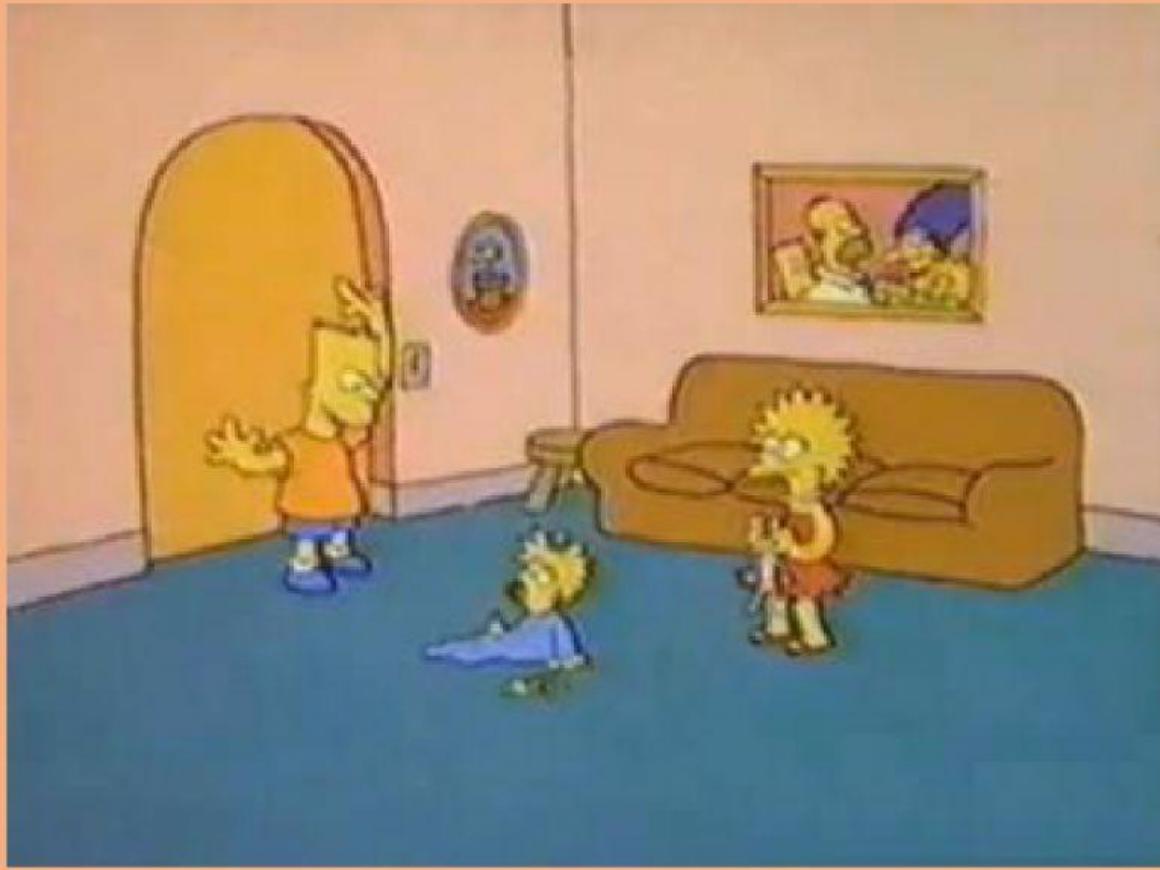

reminder

How Leopard Got His Spots

One African _____ tells how leopard got his spots. Leopard and some other animals had a funeral for their friend Ant. As the animals walked, Leopard's stomach _____. He was hungry.

Passing a farm, Leopard noticed some baskets filled with eggs. First, he tossed one egg into his mouth. Soon, he had eaten an _____ basket! The farmer saw the empty basket. "Who stole my eggs?" he asked. They all _____ eating the eggs.

The farmer had an idea. He asked all the animals to jump over a _____. He said that the animal who had eaten the eggs would fall in. Each animal _____ over the flames. When it was Leopard's turn, he took a deep breath, jumped and landed in the fire. "Aha!" said the farmer. "It was you!" Leopard climbed out of the fire, but his coat was _____ in spots as a _____ of his greed.

Write four (4) sentences about the picture you see above. Make sure that each sentence is about a different aspect of the picture.
