STANDARTIZATION AND METROLOGY
TEST 1

1. … of scientific and technical progress is closely linked with raising the technical level and quality of the machine produced.

a) increase b) decrease c) acceleration

2. Machine … requires numerous units, components, reliability and durability of the final product.

a) use b) production c) necessity

3. With the demand of constant improvement of the technical level and quality of production, … have become one of the most important tasks.

a) standards b) products c) units

4. … of standards has assumed a special importance.

a) Consumption b) Limit c) Improvement

5. Parameters must be determined that would dictate the need for the whole of industry to produce only … commodities.

a) low-quality b) high-quality c) cheap

6. It is obviously … to single out five or six leading standards for the principal machines and mechanisms.

a) necessary b) possible c) important

7. The third group of standards points to the limits of … consumption.

a) technical b) economic c) energy

8. In connection with standards it should be stressed that the machines must be designed … the standards.

a) thanks to b) due to c) according to

9. The chief task of our … is to ensure production of the, machines equipment, tools and materials.

a) industry b) country c) factory

10. It is necessary to work out fundamentally … kinds of mechanisms and technology.

a) new b) old c) ancient

LIVEWORKSHEETS