

Maths Detectives: Solve the below multiplication problems. Remember to read carefully.

1. What is the product of 9 and 3? _____

2. Multiply 12 by 4. _____

3. If your friend gives you 12 marbles each day for five days, how many marbles would she have given you?

   _____

4. A school has five classes. Each class has 30 students. How many students attend that school altogether?

   _____

5. Mother went to the supermarket and bought 75 bags of chocolates. Each bag of chocolate costs $2. How many money did mother spend in all?

   _____

6. We placed 50 rows of chairs in the hall. Each row contained 3 chairs. How many chairs were used in all?

   _____

7. Dominic, Joshua and Isaiah helped an old lady pick mangoes from her tree. She told them that they could each take 3 mangoes home. How many mangoes did she allow them to take home in all?

   _____

8. Each box holds 28 tins of evaporated milk and there are 5 of these boxes in the storeroom. How many tins of milk are in that room in all?

   _____

9. I baked some cookies and placed them on a large baking tray. There were 39 rows in all and each row had 4 cookies. How many cookies did I bake altogether?

   _____

10. Gabrielle's mother gave her $10 to take to school on Monday, Wednesday and Friday last week. How much money was Gabrielle given to take to school in all?

    _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS