I. Let's have a look at the following sentences from the text.

1. My kingdom should remain independent.
2. You should treat me as your equal.
3. I must say every Indian soldier fought like a tiger.

In sentence 1, should indicates obligation whereas in 2, it indicates condition.

In sentence 3 'must' is used to indicate insistence on the part of the speaker / necessity.

It is also used when the speaker has authority over the listener.

It is important to understand how the modals 'should' and 'must' are used.

(People sometimes use should to indicate something that is desirable and must to indicate obligation. However, some people use them interchangeably.)

Write your answer in the box

Now fill in the blanks in the following paragraph with 'should' or 'must'.

I ..... say that you ..... come to school regularly because you cannot miss important lessons. You ..... attend extra classes in time tomorrow. Otherwise I will punish you. You ..... return my book which I gave you a month ago. You ..... change your habits otherwise you will not come up in life.

Now read the conversation between a doctor and a patient and fill in the blanks with should ( should not) and must( must not).
