

Medical Conversations With Different People

Part A: Select the correct words or sentences to complete the conversation below.

Patient: Hello.  I need to see a doctor.

Receptionist: Can you describe your primary symptoms?

Patient: I'm  I don't understand – could you

Receptionist: Sure – what is the problem – why do you need to see the doctor?

Patient: I have  . It hurts to move it. I have been Receptionist: Okay. I need your health card and can you tell me your address and phone number.

Patient: Sure – here is my card. My address is Windsor. My phone number is Receptionist: Thank you – please take a seat in the waiting room. I will call you when the doctor is ready.

Patient:  Good-bye.

Part B: Drag the sentences into the correct spot in the conversation below.

Can you please rephrase that?

Yes – Dr. Davidson,

Thanks – Let's go.

I have been feeling sick.

I have been sick 3 days.

I have a sore throat.

Friend: Hi - how yah doing?

Patient: Not good –

Friend: What's the problem?

Patient: It hurts to talk.

Friend: I'm sorry – do you have a family physician?

Patient: Sorry – I don't understand –

Friend: Do you have a family doctor?

Patient: but her office is downtown and I don't want to take the bus.

Friend: That's okay – I will drive you.

Patient:

