II . Read the text and answer the questions. (8p)

In England, boys and girls go to school five days a week. They don't go to school on Saturdays and Sundays. Lessons usually begin at nine o'clock. Each lesson lasts forty-five minutes. At ten past eleven they have a quarter of an hour's break in which they drink milk. Some pupils eat sandwiches or biscuits which they brought from home. Then they have two lessons more. After that they have a lunch break. Some pupils go home for lunch, but many have it at school. At two o'clock, school begins again. There are two more lessons. For the next forty minutes they do some of their homework or have a club meeting or play games like football. They go home at four o'clock.

IV. Complete the email with present simple or present continuous.(8p)

How are you? At the moment, [0](I/ sit) next to the window on one of the university's excellent computer rooms. The sun is shining. I've got my timetable now. Basically, [1](I/ go) to classes in the morning, and [2] (I/ do) sports in the afternoon! And I've got two new friends, Khan and Uwe. [3](Khan/ be) from Liverpool, and [4](he/ study) music. [5](He/ spend) a couple of days in England at the moment. I think his sister is getting married.

Uwe is German. He's doing art. In fact, [6] (he/ paint) a picture of me this week. I'll show it to you one day! 7 really good English. Of course, [8](my Spanish/ get) better all the time. "Eshora de ir" – that's Spanish for "it's time to go" – I think.

See you!
