Exercise: Read the text and decide if each sentence is TRUE or FALSE.

For centuries, the city of Machu Picchu was lost in the jungle. Then, in the summer of 1911, the American explorer, Hiram Bingham, discovered the ruins of the city.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

It is one of the most incredible places in the world. The Inca bridge, the mountain view and river valley below are all absolutely impressive. Machu Picchu has been one of the New Seven Wonders of the World since 2007, and today it is one of the most famous tourist destinations in the world welcoming hundreds of thousands of people a year. Many people choose to follow the Inca Trail, a 43 km centuries-old path which takes three or four days on foot. Others take the train and then a bus for the last part of the journey.

Now a hotel company is going to build a cable car to the top of Machu Picchu. "The car is good news for Machu Picchu," says a company spokesman. "There are going to be more tourists and that means more jobs for local people. Looking after the ruins is expensive. With extra money, we can spend more on looking after them."

However, the plan is not popular in Peru. Ana Redondo, a tour guide, explains the problem. "There are already more than 300,000 tourists that go to Machu Picchu every year. The Inca Trail is crowded and dirty with old tea bags and water bottle everywhere. The new cable car is going to bring 400 tourists every hour! The company is also going to build a large hotel and tourist centre with souvenir shops, fast food restaurants and so on. It is the end of Machu Picchu."
