Last summer my family and I went to Disneyland Paris because we all like visiting amusement parks a lot! We stayed there for three days.

On the second day, we went to a famous restaurant. We were having lunch when I suddenly saw my favourite singer, Taylor Swift!

Then we decided to follow her because I wanted to take a photo with her.

Later, we arrived at her hotel. I was really scared but I decided to go and talk to her. She was really nice!

In the end, I took some photos with her and all my family. It was a great experience and now I have all the photos in my bedroom! I will never forget that day!
