Directions: Read the email and type in the correct form of the verb in parentheses. Remember, you may need to use an auxiliary verb. Good luck!
Hi Tabitha,
How (1) (be) you? I (2) (write) to tell you about my wonderful day today! This morning, I (3) (go) for a walk with a friend. He (4) (take) me on a hike along a new trail. I always (5) (like) learning new things about the place where I (6) (live). I (7) (wake up) early and (8) (get) ready. The sun (9) (shine) and the weather (10)
(be) perfect! We (11) (set off) for our walk and (12)
(start) chatting.
While we (13) (talk) I told him all about how I (14) (meet) you. We (15) (have) a lovely time. After our walk, we each (16) (have to) run errands in town. Unfortunately, lots of people (17) (wait) to go inside the shop, so I (18) (decide) to go home instead. As I (19) (walk) home, I (20) (get) a phone call from an old friend in Madrid. It (21)
(seem) that things (22) (get) better over there, which is great news!
As you know, we currently (23) (not have) any cases of Covid-19 here in town. I (24) (hope) we can keep it that way. Now I (25) (plan) what to do in the future. I (26) (have) some ideas about things I'd like to do, but nothing (27) (be) clear yet. Anyway, I (28) (have to) go. Antonio (29) (wait) for me so we can go for a walk. Tell me about your life these days!
Lots of love,
Grecia 🖰

PS - Write back soon!