TRIP TO SALENTO

Last week Laura and her mom travelled to Salento. First they went to Armenia, they ate franks and eggs and drank coffee in a small restaurant. Later, they visited Salento town, they liked the architecture of the colorful houses in the town and took photos.

They didn't go to Santa Rosa de Cabal because they didn't have time, but they went to The Cocora Valley where they appreciated the natural landscape. Then, they visited Calle Real and some shops mainly selling locally-made handcrafts but they did not buy any souvenirs.

At night, they stayed at a typical hostel of the Eje Cafetero Region, but they did not sleep so well because it was so cold. Yesterday they came back to Ibagué, but Laura didn't want to come back, she was so happy in Salento.
