Could / May / Might / Must / Can't

1. Rewrite the parts of the sentences in bold, using modal verbs of deduction.

1 Perhaps you will get to the meeting on time if you hurry up.

_____ to the meeting on time if you hurry up.

2 It's impossible that he is from Paris – he doesn't speak a word of French.

_____ from Paris – he doesn't speak a word of French.

3 I'm sure you're Sean – Mary has told me so much about you.

_____ Sean – Mary has told me so much about you.

4 Take the umbrella, perhaps it will rain in the afternoon.

Take the umbrella, _____ the afternoon.

5 I'm sure they study more than we do – that's why their grades are better.

_____more than we do – that's why their grades are better.

6 Go this way – perhaps it will take longer, but the road is better.

Go this way – _____longer, but the road is better.

7 I'm sure the tasks are too easy, because all the students score 100%.

_____too easy, because all the students score 100%.

2. Translate the Polish parts of the sentences into English.

1 He _____ (niemożliwe, że jest) at home – all the lights are out.

2 _____ (Możliwe, że John przyjdzie) here later on.

3 _____ (Musisz być) very hungry if you haven't eaten since breakfast.

4 Don't switch off the phone – _____ (możliwe, że zadzwonią) you from the hospital.

5 What's that music? _____ (To może być) Nirvana.

6 _____ (Niemożliwe, że znasz) all the definitions by heart.

7 _____ (Ty z pewnością jesteś) the new student, Ruth. Welcome!

LIVEWORKSHEETS