

Name: _____ class: _____

Exercise 1. Fill in the correct form of the words in brackets.

Noun	Adj	Adv	Verb
evolution	Evolutionary	Evolutionarily	Evolve
Danger	Dangerous Endangered	Dangerously	Endanger
habitat	habitable		Habituate
Vulnerability	vulnerable	vulnerably	Vulnerable
Extinction	extinct		extinguish
Biology Biologist Biodiversity	biological	Biologically	Biologise
Conservation Conservationist	conserving		conserve

- Darwin's theory of _____ (evolve) has helped to explain the disappearance of some species and the _____ (survive) of others.
- The saola and the rhino are considered _____ (danger) species in Viet Nam.
- The giant panda's natural _____ (habitate) is the bamboo forest. Giant pandas like to eat bamboo leaves.
- Baby sea turtles are most _____ (vulnerability) when they leave their nests and make their way to the sea. They are convenient targets for birds and other animals.
- Mammoths and dinosaurs used to live on our earth quite a long time ago, but they are now _____ (extinction).
- _____ (Biology) helps to maintain the balance of nature that we rely on for our well-being and benefit.
- The World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) is an organisation which is working on issues relate to _____ (conserve), research and restoration of the environment.