

Describing a picture

→	1. Who is there in this picture?	2. What does she look like?	3. What is her hair like?	4. What is she wearing?	5. Where is she?	6. What can you see on the background?
						7. What is she doing?
						8. Why is she doing it?
						9. Do you like this picture or not?
						10. How do you feel about it?
						11. Does it remind you of anything or anyone?

A woman with blonde hair tied back in a ponytail is leaning over a table, focused on decorating a round cake with white frosting. She is wearing a grey long-sleeved shirt with a small pattern and a red apron. On the table in front of her are several bowls of fruit: a large plate of raspberries, a smaller plate of blueberries, and a small bowl of what looks like chocolate shavings or grated chocolate. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

1. There is (Who?)
2. She is (What is she like?)
3. Her hair is (What is it like?)
4. She is wearing (What clothes?)
5. Most likely, she is (Where?)
6. I can see (What?)
7. She is (What is she doing?)
8. She's doing it because (Why?)
9. I (like/don't like the picture) because
10. It reminds me of/it doesn't remind me of anything or anyone.

Describing a picture

→	1. Who is there in this picture?	2. What does he look like?	3. What is his hair like?	4. What is he wearing?	5. Where is he?	6. What can you see on the background?
						7. What is he doing?
						8. Why is he doing it?
						9. Do you like this picture or not?
						10. How do you feel about it?
						11. Does it remind you of anything or anyone?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.