

Present Perfect = Předpřítomný čas

Have you _____ had hot soup to stop a cold?

I've _____ felt sick in a car.

She's _____ taken antibiotics.

Has your dad _____ helped anyone in an accident?

Sam and I have _____ written a story about doctors.

Have you _____ done first aid?

Write questions with ever:

1. stay in bed because of flu?

2. have a very high temperature?

3. sleep in a hospital?

4. make soup?

Complete the sentences with the present perfect form of the verbs given.

1 I think I _____ (break) my ankle.

2 I _____ (wait) here for a few hours.

3 Sarah _____ (do) her homework.

4 Alfie and Holly _____ (live) in Paris for two years.

5 We _____ (buy) a dog.

6 My dad _____ (paint) this room green. It looks great!

7 Sam _____ (have) this watch since he was 12.

five years

2014

three days

the day I met you

ten seconds

an hour

the age of five

7th February

Friday

6 o'clock

period of time

for

since

moment in time

Complete the sentences with information about you. Use the correct form of the present perfect and a time expression.

1 I _____ (know) my English teacher for _____.

2 I _____ (live) in this area since _____.

3 I (have) this mobike for

4 I (be) able to swim since

Choose the right word:

I have never ever felt so ill.

We have been here for since half past three.

Have you ever never been in hospital?

My sister had has had that bike since she was little.

I've had a bandage on my ankle for since a week.

He has ever never met his Australian cousin.

Liam has been the singer in the band since

three years 2009.

Write these words into the right place:

ever never since for

Have you been here a long time?

She's wanted to be a doctor she was seven.

Have you met my parents?

I've been to China, but I'd like to go.

Have you worn a suit and tie?

She's been able to walk the operation.

We've known each other ages.