

2. Complete the following text using the words in boxes. There are two extra words.

discuss	plan	nutrition	clearly	should	vegetables different	addition	disadvantages	year	allow

Junk food

Many schools around the world have banned sweets and other junk food from their cafeterias. This has both advantages and (1)_____.

First, I will (2)_____ the disadvantages. Children love junk food because it is tasty. If junk food is banned from school cafeterias, students will not be able to eat what they like. Perhaps they will not eat at all. In addition, people have (3)_____ ideas about what junk food is and what is okay to eat. It would be difficult to decide what foods to ban and what to (4)_____ in the schools.

There are, however, some advantages to this (5)_____. The number of overweight and obese students is increasing every (6)_____. There are also high rates of diseases like diabetes in the UAE. Many of these problems can be avoided if people learn about good (7)_____ at a young age. The best place to learn this is in school. In (8)_____, the government can help keep children healthy by providing fruit, (9)_____, and other healthy food instead of chips and chocolate in school.