

1. Write these verbs in the past tense:

- We (eat) together last Saturday.
- He (see) his best friend at the zoo.
- I (buy) a present to you.
- You (have) a dog when you were 5 years old.

2. Write doesn't, don't or didn't in each case (read the question before answering)

- My brother like pizza he prefers salad.
- My sister and I like to go to the circus.
- You want to play this game. I know it!
- We go on vacation last summer.

3. Write the verb in the correct form for each case: am, is, are

- She very smart.
- They always playing. They love it!
- I very happy today .
- All of you coming to my party.

4. Write the sentences of exercise 3 in the past tense: was/were

- She very smart.
- They always playing. They loved it!
- I very happy.
- All of you coming to my party.

5. Write must or mustn't in each case:

- You wash your hands frequently.
- You be kind with everyone.
- She run because her leg hurts.
- We waste time fighting.

6. Read the text and answer:

Next Sunday Susan and her dog Max are going to the countryside with her family. They are going to spend one night there, so they need to take a lot of things they need. They should take plenty of food. Susan's brother wants to take Jim, his hamster, with them, but Jim is very small and it can get lost. They are all very happy to spend the day together.

Now answer: true or false:

- The excursion is on Saturday.
- Susan's pet is going with all the family to the excursion.
- They are coming back home at night.
- They need to take a lot of food
- Susan's brother has a small pet.

Complete with should or shouldn't:

- Susan and her family                      take plenty of food.

- Jim go to the excursion because it is too small and it can get lost.
- They take food for Max.
- They make sure everything is clean before coming back home.