Why I love street dance

I've been doing street dance for three years and I think it's a great way to keep fit and have fun. You don't need any special equipment other than comfortable clothes and trainers. All you need (27) get started is the right music, love for dance, (28) big enough space to move around in and loads of energy! There's no need to go to classes either – I taught myself from some brilliant videos online (29) showed me some of the main moves, but I create my own moves (30) well.

Street dance is perfect for people (31) me who enjoy dancing but don't want to follow a strict set of rules. There are some very popular moves in street dance, such as 'pop-n-lock' steps and 'krumping', but it's a really free kind of dance, so you (32) even invent your own style. It's cool!
