

1: An inspector uses a buttonhook to pull back this immigrant's eyelid as he inspects for trachoma and other eye diseases.

Immigrating Through Ellis Island – Would you Pass the Tests?

Answer each question by selecting your answer from the drop-down menu.

1. Which monument greeted new immigrants to America?
2. Where in New York did European immigrants have to stop before they were allowed to enter America?
3. What was the very first thing a doctor observed about a new immigrant?
4. About how many people went through Ellis Island as immigrants?
5. What was the very catching (contagious) disease doctors looked for when they examined the immigrants' eyes?
6. How long did the medical tests take each person on Ellis Island?
7. What did the doctors do if they found someone with a problem?
8. A contagious disease spreads quickly.

