Worksheet to review Unit 1 (Animals)

Answer the following questions using the correct word. Use your science books or your notebooks to find the answers. There are 13 possible answers for 10 questions. This means that there are 3 that you don't need.

amphibians	water	nutrition	invertebrate	oxygen
backbone	he	rbivores	viviparous	oviparous
e	gg	omnivore	s plant	s animals
All animals carry out three vital functions:
interaction	on and rep	roduction.
2. Animals take in from the environment.
3		are a	nimals that or	nly eat plants.
4. Carnivor	es eat oth	er
5		eat	animals and p	olants.
Oviparous animals develop and grow inside an
7		anin	nals grow insi	de their mother.
8. Animals that have a are called
vertebra	tes.
9		anima	s don't have	a backbone.
10. The five types of vertebrates are: mammals, fish,
reptiles,		and	d birds.

