Save the elephant from extinction!

Slaughtering elephants for their ivory should be banned _____. Elephants will become an endangered species and disappear _____ from the wild if poachers – the people who ilegally kill elephants – are not stopped.

Elephants are hunted and killed for their tusks because some _____ greedy people use the beautiful ivory tusks to make jewellery and ornaments. Other material can be used to make these trinkets, so why kill _____ magnificent animals?

Whole elephant families, including babies still _____ young to have tusks, are mercilessly gunned down by poachers who slaughter as many as 300 in a day.
