Attempts/ Opportunities	Stimulus
1
2
3
Total

Name: _____

Date: _____

Subject: English Grade: 7th Teacher: _____

Content Standard: Reading Depth of knowledge: 1 2 3 4

Indicator: 7.L.1 (Listening) Listen and collaborate with peers during social and academic interactions in class, group, and partner discussions in read-alouds, oral presentations, and a variety of grade-appropriate topics.

a. Ask relevant questions, add relevant information, and paraphrase key ideas.

Reference: Freed, K. (n.d.). Sea Turtles . Learning A-Z.

Skill required to demonstrate on the evaluation: Ask relevant questions, add relevant information, and paraphrase key ideas (7.L.1.a).

Instructions: Ask relevant questions, add relevant information, and paraphrase key ideas. Read the following texts and match them with the correct paraphrase text.

1. Sea turtles have roamed the oceans for at least 150 million years. They are among Earth's oldest surviving animals.

2. Sea turtles are strong, graceful swimmers and divers whose streamlined bodies are well adapted to life in the ocean.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Sea turtles are awkward and slow-moving on land, as well as being nearsighted.

Auto Evaluation: _____ Excellent ★★★ _____ Good ★★ _____ I can improve ★

Environment: ____ Special Education Classroom _____ English Classroom _____ Yard _____ Court

Stimulus: __ (0) Total Physical ___(1) Partial Physical ___(2) Model ___(3) Gestures ____(4) Verbal ___(5) Independent

Interpersonal Relationship: partners name and age

_____

Supports: _____Didactic materials _____Manipulative _____Tools _____Pictures _____ Computer

LIVEWORKSHEETS

For at least 150 million years, sea turtles have traversed the waters. They are among the planet's earliest living creatures.

Sea turtles have streamlined bodies that are well adapted to living in the ocean and are strong, graceful swimmers and divers.

On shore, sea turtles are clumsy and slow-moving, as well as nearsighted.

LIVEWORKSHEETS