II. READING.

1. Countries and culture.

Read the text and choose the correct alternative.

Chilean Independence Day

Independence day is on September 18th. Kites color the skies during the day. On this day, Chile proclaimed its first government body after becoming independent from Spain. White, blue, and red flags are everywhere. Most people go to the fondas and eat traditional food like empanadas and listen to folk music. They also drink a lot of wine and chicha. Many people dance the cueca.

USA Independence Day

This holiday is on July 4th. On this day the USA got its independence from Great Britain. People have barbecues, watch parades, and go to football games. Lots of red, white, and blue flags hang from buildings and flagpoles. At night everyone watches great fireworks displays. It's summer so the weather is nice and a lot of people play sports. Very few people stay at home.
