There once __ a queen who named her only daughter Snow White because her skin was so fair and lovely. The queen__, and Snow White's father married a new queen, who was __, vain and wicked. Every morning she would stand in front of the mirror and say, 'Mirror, mirror on the wall, who __ the fairest one of all?' The mirror always answered, 'You' until one day it __ that Snow White was the fairest one of all.

The evil queen __ one of her servants to take Snow White to the forest to have her killed. The servant, feeling sorry for Snow white, let her go and __ back a wild boar's heart to show the queen he had done the deed. Snow White, alone and hungry in the forest, __ across a little cottage with seven tiny beds. When the dwarves came back form work they __ Snow White and said she __ stay with them if she cleaned and cooked.

They all lived happily until one day the mirror __the wicked queen that Snow White was still alive and living with the dwarves. The wicked queen disguised herself and __ to the cottage while the dwarves were at work. She ___ Snow White a red apple that was poisoned.

When Snow White ___ a bite of the apple, she fell down unconscious. The dwarves __ very sad and built a glass coffin for her. One day a prince came by and __ how beautiful Snow White was, and bent down to give her a kiss. Snow White __ up and they were married.

LIVEWORKSHEETS