

6th Grade Worksheet

Name: _____ date: _____

1. Vocabulary Practice. Read the sentences and complete with the correct “Health problem” inside the box.

Stomachache – Sore throat – Broken leg – Toothache – Cut – Broken arm – Bruise –
Fever – Cough – Headache – Measles – Backache – Cold – Earache – Flu

- a- It's the second time this week. I can't get up because I have a _____, it's painful.
- b- Patient: Today the street was frozen and very slippery, I fell and now my leg hurts.
Doctor: Let's check!
Patient: I think I have a _____.
Doctor: Your leg is okay, you only have to rest and take painkillers.
- c- My allergies are acting up today, I have a _____. Why do I have to be allergic to pollen?
- d- I ate a ton of sweets today, and I didn't brush my teeth. Now I have a _____.
- e- I decided to make my mom a very healthy breakfast. Sadly, I have got a _____ on my finger.
- f- My friend at school had a lot of red dots on his face, we all got to go home early. The teacher told us that he has _____ and that he has to stay at home.
- g- I fell down the stairs at school, now I have a _____ on my leg. That what I get for not tying my shoes.
- h- Teresa: Winter is the season where health problems pop-up frequently.
Ana: Are you sure? I thought winter was about having a chilly weather.
Teresa: Well, mostly. Speaking of health problems, I think I have the _____.
Ana: Why didn't you tell me sooner?
- i- I have choir practice the whole week, that's not good. All this practice is going to get me a _____. I have to rest at least for a day in between practices.
- j- Lately, I've been eating junk food since it is a lot faster to make. My mom says I'm going to get sick from it and she was right. I have a _____ now.
- k- John: Hey Dave, quick question. You consider a temperature a _____ when it reaches 38°C or 39°C?
Dave: First, hi John. Second, please tell me you're joking and that you are already at the hospital.
John: So, it was bad, huh. Thanks Dave, see you on Monday!
Dave: See you!

- l- Lily: Mum, I am going to use my scooter today! should I wear the whole equipment or just my helmet?
Mum: Use all of it, last time you fell on your arm, remember?
Lily: You are right, Mum. I don't want to have a _____ again.
- m- After my swimming lesson my ear started to hurt, it is really painful and it feels hot. I think I may have a _____.
- n- I think I have a _____, I spend too much time on the computer, and my eyes are starting to hurt. I probably should go outside for a while.
- o- I have been sneezing and coughing for a while now, My friends say that I have a _____. They are probably right, I haven't take care of myself lately.

2. Read and match. In the first column you will have the "Health problems" and in the other the definition, choose carefully since there are some that are similar.

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1- Cough | a. expel air from the lungs with a sudden sharp sound. |
| 2- Flu | b. a condition marked by pain in the throat, typically caused by inflammation due to a cold or other virus. |
| 3- Backache | c. a common infection in which the mucous membrane of the nose and throat becomes inflamed, typically causing running at the nose, sneezing, and a sore throat. |
| 4- Cold | d. prolonged pain in one's back. |
| 5- Fever | e. an injury appearing as an area of discolored skin on the body, caused by a blow or impact. |
| 6- Bruise | f. contagious respiratory illness caused by influenza viruses that infect the nose, throat, and sometimes the lungs |
| 7- Sore throat | g. an abnormally high body temperature, usually accompanied by shivering, headache, and in severe instances, delirium. |
| 8- Cut | |

3. The sentences are scrambled, and you need to put them in order

- a. cough. / I / a / have / medicine. / I / to / take / have

-
- b. head/ I / My / hurts, / a / headache / have

-
- c. cut / hand. / He / a / has / his / in
-